What are the major duties and responsibilities of the position?

As a Senior Procurement Analyst the incumbent is responsible for the following:

- Assists in managing oversight and review programs to ensure the integrity of the VA Acquisition Program.

- Provides consultative services to VA acquisition professionals and program officials on a variety of procurement issues.

- Analyzes complex procurement issues, conducts research, and develops solutions

- Reviews allegations of procurement fraud and coordinates debarment activities with the offices of Inspector General and General Counsel.

- Evaluates, prepares, and coordinates VA replies on protest, in conjunction with the Office of the General Council.

- Analyzes and prepares responses on mistakes-in-bid.

- Coordinates timely responses, and maintains database of FOIA requests received from members of the public, firms, or other parties requesting information

What qualifications are required?

QUALIFICATION REQUIREMENTS Basic Requirements for GS-13 and above

- A. Completion of all mandatory training prescribed by the head of the agency for progression to GS-13 or higher level contracting positions, including at least 4-years experience in contracting or related positions. At least 1 year of that experience must have been specialized experience at or equivalent to work at the next lower level of the position, and must have provided the knowledge, skills, and abilities to perform successfully the work of the position.
- AND
- B. A 4-year course of study leading to a bachelor's degree, that included or was supplemented by at least 24 semester hours in any combination of the following fields: accounting, business, finance, law, contracts, purchasing, economics, industrial management, marketing, quantitative methods, or organization and management.
- C. Exceptions: Employees in GS-1102 positions will be considered to have met the standard for positions they occupy on January 1, 2000. This also applies to positions at the same grade in the same agency or other agencies if the specialized experience requirements are met. However, they will have to meet the basic requirements and specialized experience requirements in order to qualify for promotion to a higher grade, unless granted a waiver under Paragraph D.
- D. Waiver: When filling a specific vacant position, the senior procurement executive of the selecting agency, at his or her discretion, may waive any or all of the requirements of Paragraphs A and B above if the senior procurement executive certifies that the applicant possesses significant potential for advancement to levels of greater responsibility and authority, based on demonstrated analytical and decision making capabilities, job performance, and qualifying experience.

Specialized experience is experience related to the work to be performed. It may be gained in the following ways

- Expert knowledge of Federal and VA procurement regulations, policies, techniques and procedures.
- Mastery of a wide range of qualitative and quantitative methods for the review and assessment of complex contracts, procurement policies and regulations and sensitive and/or complex acquisition related issues and problems.
- Extensive knowledge of VA and Acquisition and Materiel Management goals, objectives, priorities, operations and administrative processes.

How is my application evaluated?

Any substitution of education for experience will be made using OPM guidelines. If you meet the minimum qualification requirements your application will be further evaluated to determine the extent your work or related experience, education, training, awards, outside activities and supervisory appraisal (if requested) shows you have the knowledges, skills and abilities (KSAs) of the position. KSA statements must show clear, concise examples of level of accomplishment and the degree to which you possess the KSA. If you paraphrase the KSA without giving examples, you will not receive credit. The information provided is used to determine “best qualified” candidates either by a single evaluator or a rating panel.

What do I need to know before I apply for this position?

This announcement is a solicitation for applications from current VA employees for competitive promotion consideration. It does not restrict the right to consider or select applicants from any other recruitment source such as:

- Reassignment
- Appointment
- Demotion
